Given the fact that much of the precious time of students has already been lost due to unfavourable circumstances in the valley since July 2016, there is an immense need to dedicate more time to the academics in educational institutions.

In view of the above, the heads of all Educational Institutions of Kashmir Division are placed under strict instructions to devote maximum possible time to the academics which may include completion of the syllabus/practical in time and provision of extra classes wherever necessary. Minimum possible time should be given to the Non- Scholastic (Co-Curricular and Sports Activities) during the current session.

However, if need arises to devote time for Co-Curricular or sports activities, prior permission is to be sought from this Directorate.

The Circular shall be strictly adhered to.
