Directorate of School Education
Kashmir

CIRCULAR

It is impressed upon all the heads of High and Higher Secondary Schools (Government as well as Private) of Kashmir Division not to resort to any kind of detention while submitting the examination forms of 10th and 12th class students for the ensuing annual Board examinations. Debarring any student from appearing in the examination under whatever circumstances except shortfall in required attendance has been prohibited by Administrative Department. The heads of the institutions shall ensure that examination forms of all the students on the rolls of their institutions are sent to the J&K Board of School Education as regular students.

Meanwhile, all the Chief Education Officers shall ensure that no complaints regarding the violation of the circular instructions are received by this Directorate.
